Training Session at

Perlman Residence

Katonah, NY

Saturday

May 9, 2009

Introduction

- ◆ Purpose: To give YOU the resources YOU need to do YOUR job
- ◆ Evidence: Upon completion, YOU will wear the “trained” emblem (if you hold a leadership position)
- ◆ Method: games, videos, hand outs, demonstrations, plus
- ◆ The Patrol Leader Handbook, and other resources

Query

- ◆ How many have had this course before?
- ◆ How many have been through a Council-level course?
- ◆ How many have been to the National Junior Leader Instructor Camp at Philmont Scout Ranch?

Agenda

- ◆ We will cover:
 - Leadership
 - Cooperation
- ◆ Meal break
 - Problem Solving
 - Team Building
- ◆ Presentation of Patches

Warm-Up Game #1

- ◆ Moon Ball (Keep It Up)
 - Form a circle, with a ball handy
 - Rules: you can't hit the ball twice in a row
 - Set a goal beforehand for consecutive ball hits aloft without the ball touching the ground.
 - (Start now)

Moon Ball Reflection

- ◆ Was your goal realistic?
- ◆ Did you achieve your goal?
- ◆ If so, how?

Warm-Up Game #2

◆ Yurt Circle

- Join hands and expand the circle outward until the circle is tight
- Count off by two's
- Bending at the ankles, not the waist, one's lean in and two's lean out
- Do it slowly, then reverse positions
- (Start now)

Yurt Circle Reflection

- ◆ If everyone works together, each person can accomplish a remarkable forward or backward lean

Warm-Up Game #3

◆ Everybody Up

- Let's try to build group cooperation
- Two same-size persons sit down facing each other, legs out, knees bent, feet touching opposite person's feet
- Grasp other persons hands tightly, and pull each other into upright standing position
- Repeat, adding more and more people on each side, until everyone is included
- (Start now)

Reflection on Everybody Up

- ◆ Were you eventually able to get everybody included and upright?
- ◆ Is there any real limit to the number of people that can play this game, as long as they work together?
- ◆ Would Moon Ball, Yurt Circle, and Everybody Up be fun games for the Troop?

Why are we here today?

- ◆ to learn a leadership style that works great in Scouting
- ◆ to learn to work together to accomplish a common goal
- ◆ to learn how to deal with problems we all encounter in Scouting
- ◆ and to have some fun at the same time

Overview

- ◆ I'm a leader - what do I do now?
- ◆ More than an honor, it's a challenge
- ◆ Lead Troop 154 and your Patrol
- ◆ Decide the course your Patrol and Troop will follow along the Scouting trail
- ◆ Help others master Scouting skills
- ◆ Be a role model for other Scouts.

What Is Leading Anyway?

- ◆ If others think of you as the boss, you're probably not leading.
- ◆ If they think of you as one of the guys and everything you set out to do is getting done, you're probably a good leader.

Skills and Techniques of Successful Scout Leaders:

- ◆ They ask a lot of questions
- ◆ They make a lot of suggestions
- ◆ They don't give too many orders
- ◆ They use the Scoutmaster and Assistant Scoutmasters as a resource.
- ◆ They took Troop Junior Leader Training
 - That's why you are here today!

Further Training Opportunities:

- ◆ Council-level Junior Leader Training
 - “2 weekend” training conference in April
- ◆ National Junior Leader Instructor Camp
 - Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico

Get Into Your Job - Break It Down into Pieces

- ◆ Tackle one piece at a time
- ◆ Think of your Patrol Leader Handbook as a toolbox.
 - take it with you to meetings
 - take it on campouts
 - take it to summer camp

Other “toolboxes”:

- ◆ Boy Scout Handbook
 - the basic tool for all Scouting
- ◆ Troop Program Features - a good source for:
 - games (for learning and for fun)
 - ceremonies (how about some new ones?)
 - programming themes
- ◆ the Troop’s adult leaders
- ◆ other junior leaders

Presentation of Patrol Leader Handbooks

- ◆ Put your name in it now
- ◆ Read it, know it, follow it
- ◆ Keep it as a resource for the rest of your Scout career

Presentation of Course Outlines

- ◆ Most of the information in these outlines that don't come from the video can be found in your Patrol Leader Handbook or in other Scouting resources.

Now let's watch a video segment on leadership

◆ (Start the Video Now)

Now let's try Activity #1

The “Blind Square”

The ‘Blind Square’

- ◆ Needed: 50’ of rope, blindfolds
- ◆ Designate a ‘Leader’
- ◆ Form in a circle and blindfold yourselves
- ◆ Reach down and grab the rope with both hands
- ◆ Objective: to form a square, using the rope to establish the boundaries

“Blind Square” rules:

- ◆ No one may let the rope leave his hands for more than five seconds at a time
- ◆ Only the “Leader” may speak
 - Leader may number the other people in the group if desired
 - The “Leader” decides when the square is formed
- ◆ (Try it now - when finished, we’ll proceed)

Reflection on the “Blind Square”

- ◆ Sit where you are
- ◆ Who took the leadership role?
- ◆ How did decisions get made?
- ◆ What didn't you like about this style?
- ◆ How often do leaders act like “big bosses”?
- ◆ How does it feel to be lead by “big boss”?
- ◆ Is “big boss” style prevalent in Scouting?
- ◆ Could we play this without “Big Boss”?

Now let's try a "Blind Equilateral Triangle", but with cooperation

- ◆ Everyone is still blindfolded
 - put on your blindfolds again
- ◆ This time, however, everyone may talk
- ◆ (Try it now - when finished, we'll proceed)

Reflection on the “Blind Equilateral Triangle”

- ◆ Who assumed leadership roles?
- ◆ Did the leadership role shift during the activity?
- ◆ Did you follow, even though you were not sure the idea would work?
- ◆ What’s good about this leadership style?
- ◆ What didn’t you like about the “Big Boss”?
- ◆ How could “shared leadership” work in our Troop?

Identifying the Traits of a Good Leader:

- ◆ 1.
- ◆ 2.
- ◆ 3.
- ◆ 4.
- ◆ 5.
- ◆ 6.
- ◆ 7.

Now let's watch the next video segment, "Cooperation"

(resume video)

Some comments on the video

- ◆ Tommy's question led to a better job of packing
- ◆ No put-downs, or "I'll take charge", just a focus on the problem
- ◆ Teenagers get bossed around enough - Scouting ought to be different
- ◆ The alternative to the "big boss" style is "shared leadership," helping others to set goals and assist in reaching them

Standing Tall, Up Front -

The Job of the Senior Patrol Leader:

- ◆ The master of ceremonies
 - makes sure things happen as planned
- ◆ Looks ahead to “next time”
 - did the original plan really work out well?
 - what should we do differently next time?
 - should hold a critique after each activity
- ◆ Looks at your friend, the Scoutmaster, as a resource

Helping Others Grow

- ◆ When someone doesn't do the assigned task, it is your job to find someone who will
- ◆ Resist the urge to pick up a dropped ball and run with it -
 - Rather, pick it up and pass it to someone else
 - this is called DELEGATING
 - » Delegating is one trait of a good leader
 - » It allows others to grow in experience

Activity #3 - My Friend, the Potato

- ◆ observe closely the potatoes you have received
- ◆ introduce “your potato” to the group
 - tell us about unique size, shape, etc.
- ◆ now we’ll put the potatoes back in the bag, mix them up, and retrieve them one by one
- ◆ do you recognize “your” potato?

Reflection on “My Friend the Potato”

- ◆ What really happened here?
- ◆ In what ways are we all alike?
- ◆ How do these similarities help us get things done?

Are differences good or bad?

- ◆ How are we different from one another?
- ◆ How do differences strengthen the group as a whole?
- ◆ When do differences keep a group from reaching its goal?
- ◆ How can we find out about the special qualities and abilities of each member of our troop?
- ◆ Are these talents differences?

I'm hungry - how about you?

- ◆ pick up a food sack and let's eat!

Reflection on the meal activity

- ◆ Did we think before we acted?
 - how many people were there to feed?
 - how much and what kinds of food was available?
 - how did we handle any “shortages”?
 - what is the 12th point of the Scout Law?
 - are there other Law points relevant here?

A Leader's comment -

- ◆ Our success as leaders will be determined by how well we are able to take the unique talents of each member of our group and mold them into a team, committed to accomplishing a common goal

New let's watch the next video segment - Problem Solving (first part)

This segment deals with problem solving - there are three sequential steps a boy can take to frame a problem and see it in a larger context ...

Steps to frame a problem:

- ◆ Empathy - put yourself in the other's place
- ◆ Invention- invent as many solutions as you can
- ◆ Selection - which is best for the most people - caring is as important as justice
- ◆ Now here's the video
- ◆ (start video, proceed afterwards)

Activity #5 - the “Tent Scene”

- ◆ divide into groups of about three people
- ◆ discuss how your group would resolve the conflict over the tent flaps
- ◆ each group will then present their solution in the form of a skit or role-playing
- ◆ after all skits are completed, we’ll return to the video to see how Tommy solved the problem
- ◆ (let’s do it now)

Activity #6 - “Nine Magazines”

- ◆ the purpose of this activity is to show how Scouts may need to look at several possible alternatives before arriving at a no-lose situation
- ◆ if you think you have the solution, become the “guesser”. If you are correct, you’ll then become the “medium”
- ◆ when it seems most of us have the answer, we’ll return to the video
- ◆ (play the game now, then go to video)

Activity #7 - The “Scene” with Tommy and Sam

- ◆ Divide yourselves into two groups
- ◆ Use empathy, invention, and selection to deal with the Sam and Tommy problem
- ◆ Each group is to select two actors to portray their group’s solution

Reflection on Activity #7

- ◆ how was group #1's solution different from group #2?
- ◆ which solution do you prefer and why?
- ◆ what alternatives might we have missed?
- ◆ was it a win/win solution? Why or why not?
- ◆ how would you feel in Sam's place?
- ◆ how could the problem have been avoided?

A Patrol Duty Roster can be Handy

- ◆ It matches expected chores to available people
- ◆ It rotates the people among the chores
 - everyone should have a chance at the “fun” stuff
 - just as everyone should have a chance at the “necessary” stuff
- ◆ Patrol Scribe can save them for future reference

Review troop and patrol job descriptions -

- ◆ any questions in general about troop and patrol jobs?
- ◆ do you have any questions about your specific job?
- ◆ what do you plan to do better than your predecessor did?
- ◆ how will you do it?
- ◆ what help can the rest of us give you?

It Really Helps to Be Well Informed

- ◆ You can't lead if you don't know where you are going
- ◆ Sources of information
 - Patrol Leaders' Council Meetings
 - Troop Meetings
 - The Troop 154 Newsletter (future)
 - Troop 154 Web Page (future)

How Can I Remember Everything?

- ◆ Pocket note pad and pen/pencil
 - In left breast pocket at all times
- ◆ Three ring binder (three styles)
 - Zippered edge retains loose items
 - Clear insert covers let you customize
 - » Leadership Certificate on front, roster on back
 - Flexible cover fits in pack

Three Ring Binder Tips

- ◆ Use a 1-31 date index sheet
- ◆ Keep index up to date in front or back cover insert
- ◆ Keep copies in it of
 - JLTC notes
 - issues of The Troop 154 Newsletter
 - copies of PLC minutes
 - any handouts from Troop and PLC meetings, etc ...

Importance of Troop Roster

- ◆ Keep a copy in your wallet at all times
- ◆ Useful for musters
- ◆ Useful to “spread the word”

Troop or Patrol Emergency Notification

- ◆ SM calls SPL and 2 ASM's
- ◆ Each SPL calls ASPL and each patrol leader
 - ASPL calls QM, Scribe, Bugler, etc.
- ◆ Each Patrol Leader calls APL and 1/2 the patrol
 - ASPL calls the other 1/2 patrol

Looking the part

- ◆ You are a role model. You should be proud to WEAR your scout uniform, and wear it CORRECTLY at all scout functions.
- ◆ How do I know what is correct?
 - Inside front and back covers of the Boy Scout Handbook
 - Boy Scout/Varsity Scout Uniform Inspection Sheet, No. 34283
 - Insignia Guide, No. 33064
- ◆ Check your our own uniforms as we go along

Common Uniform Mistakes

- ◆ Belt tab and buckle not “brass on brass”
- ◆ Misplacement of service stars
 - Make a template from a plastic milk carton to help you
 - Keep the template in your shirt pocket - it will survive the washer!

Nameplates

- ◆ Nameplates (optional) when worn should be
 - above the BSA strip and
 - above the interpreter strip
 - above the WEARER'S right breast pocket

Order of the Arrow Sash

- ◆ The Order of the Arrow sash is not to be worn with the merit badge sash.
- ◆ The sash is worn at Order of the Arrow functions and special Scouting activities, when members need to be identified as Arrowmen rendering special services.

Merit Badge Sash

- ◆ The Insignia Guide, p. 4 says “Only temporary patches (no badges of rank) may be worn on the back of the merit badge sash.
- ◆ Only one merit badge sash may be worn.

Quality Unit Award

- ◆ Right Sleeve, most recent year only
- ◆ 4” below seam or
- ◆ If National Honor Patrol Star is worn
 - below and touching it

Headgear Regulations

- ◆ Official headgear may be worn while the unit or individual is participating in an indoor formal ceremony or service duty (except in religious institutions where custom forbids)
 - Flag ceremonies, inspections, orderly duty, ushering service

When Not to Wear Your Headgear

- ◆ In informal indoor activity where no official ceremony is involved, headgear is removed, as when in street clothes.

Embroidered Square Knots

- ◆ Remember “Right Side Up”
 - The loop of the embroidered square knot that comes in front of the standing part is always to the wearer’s right.

Time Out for a Uniform Inspection

Now let's view the video "Team Building"

- ◆ (view video now, then proceed)

Activity #8 “Willow in the Wind”

- ◆ Stand shoulder to shoulder in a circle
- ◆ One person, “the faller”, stands rigid and trusting in the center
- ◆ Remaining rigid, the faller falls slowly in any direction
- ◆ Before he falls too far, redirect him to another part of the circle
- ◆ This “fall-catch-push” sequence should continue until the faller feels relaxed and the team feels they are working together
- ◆ Change fallers until all have had a chance

Here it is - the Big One!

◆ The “Trust Fall”

- each Scout will be asked in turn to stand atop a five foot platform and fall backwards into the waiting arms of the rest of us
- close your eyes prior to and during the fall
- keep your arms close to your sides (hands grasping trousers, or crossed over chest)
- fall with your body rigid, not bending at the waist
- (There’s more ...)

More “Trust Fall” instructions

- ◆ remove all objects from your pockets
- ◆ catchers should remove jewelry
- ◆ two lines of catchers stand facing each other, shoulder to shoulder
 - hands extended, palms up, hands alternated (zippered!)
 - stand close together to form a safe landing area
- ◆ Catchers: don’t lock hands with the person facing you
 - Knocked heads would result
 - (more ...)

“Trust Fall” communications

- ◆ We will need a communications code between faller and catchers
- ◆ Faller: “Ready to fall!”
- ◆ Catchers: “Fall away!”
- ◆ Faller: “Falling!”
- ◆ ANY QUESTIONS BEFORE WE PROCEED?
 - If not, let’s do it now

Reflections on “Willow” and “Trust Fall”

- ◆ What did you like about these two games?
- ◆ What is scary about the trust fall?
- ◆ How is the trust fall like what we have been talking about today?
- ◆ How will trusting each other help us to have a better troop?

Goal Setting

- ◆ How about your patrol becoming a “National Honor Patrol”
 - see Boy Scout Handbook for details
- ◆ How about our troop becoming a “Quality Unit” again this year?
 - the Scoutmaster has the details
- ◆ What other goals do we want to set?

Where to get more information

- ◆ Other training sessions
- ◆ List books, articles, electronic sources
- ◆ Consulting services, other sources

Trained Leader Emblem

- ◆ Available to all leaders who have completed the basic training programs appropriate to their positions.
- ◆ Worn immediately below and touching the emblem of office for which it was earned.

A Note to Den Chiefs -

- ◆ Your training today is for the position you hold in the Troop.
- ◆ There is a special den chief training conference for the den chief position you hold in the Pack.

“Trained” Emblem is Job Specific

- ◆ The Trained Leader emblem may be worn only in connection with the emblem of office for which basic training has been completed.

Closing Reflection from the Leader

- ◆ Today we had fun and met some challenges
- ◆ We've learned new skills to be better leaders
- ◆ How can we use these experiences to make our Troop even better?
